Notice to Wool Growers.—Just received, a fine lot of Wool SACKS and TWINE, at RAVELEY'S.

An Old Maids's Story.

He came to me when Spring flowers threw
Their fragrance on the crystal air;
He was so manly and so fair,
No other thought or love I knew.

He told to me the old, sweet tale—
The story old, yet ever new—
Of love; I drank it as the dew
Is drunk by blossoms in the vale.

He said for my sake every ill
Of life should pass him by;
That every dark cloud in the sky
Should have its silvery lining still.

He said the sweet dream of his life
Was of a sunny, quiet spot,
Where vines should wreathe a lovely cot,
And I should be his loving wife.

He gave to me a lock of hair,
A little, silken, jetty tress;
How oft I kiss it! while I bless
His head, and pray he knows no care.

He said to me at our farewell,
"My darling, never let them take
You from me, or my heart will break!"
His voice was like a clear sweet bell.

I thought the days would never pass,
So long they seemed away from him;
The sunshine of my soul grew dim,
When falling leaves and yellow grass

Told that the Summer laid her head
In Autumn's dusky lap to die,
And he came not; I prayed that I
Might, like the Summer, soon be dead.

His dear voice never fell again
Upon my eager, longing ears;
No rose leaves robbed the weary years
Of piercing thorns and sullen pain.

But from the great cold world there came
A rumor of a lovely face—
A being full of girlish grace,
Who won and wore his precious name.

He wrote me that the past was o'er,
That he would be my brother—friend;
As if my love could ever end
In friendship and in nothing more!

The sweet hopes died down in my life;
I did not hate; I only prayed
That o'er his life would fall no shade
I could have crushed were I his wife.

HIDEOUS ACTS OF CANNIBALISM.—The following hideous narrative is given by the local Moniteur of New Caledonia, a French penal settlement: "In September, 1863, the chief of the tribe of Moneo had one of his people killed and eaten for having committed the crime of adultery, such being the law among them. At the same time, the second chief of Moneo was killed by order of the chief of Attinens, for having eaten human flesh. In the month of November following, Oipe Kambo, chief of Nekone, invited the tribes of Houaraye, Ba, Houailou, and Moneo, to a grand feast. In the middle of the fete two natives of the last-named place were seized by order of Oipe, killed in presence of the dancers, cut up, roasted, and eaten by all without hesitation. The guests retired, delighted with having been regaled with their favorite food, and their digestion not at all disturbed by any remorse at such a violation of the rights of hospitality. Some time afterwards, however, the people of Moneo protested against what had taken place. Whether they considered that too small a portion had been given to them, or whether they feared a repetition of the act, is not known, but they suddenly entered the Territory of Houailou and carried off 15 prisoners—the son of a chief, two other men, and 12 women. All were killed, but only the females had the honor of being devoured."

MONEY.—Money is a queer institution. It buys provender, satisfies justice, and heals wounded honor. Everything resolves itself into cash, from stock-jobbing to building churches. Childhood craves pennies; youth aspires to dimes; manhood is swayed by the mighty dollars. The blacksmith swings his sledge, the lawyer pleads for his client, and the judge decides the question of life or death for his salary. Money makes the man; therefore man must make money, if he would be respected by fools; for the eye of the world looks through golden spectacles. It buys Brussels carpets, lace curtains, gilded cornices, rich furniture, and builds marble mansions. It drives us to church in splendid equipages, and pays the rent of the best pews. It buys silks and jewelry for my lady—it commands the respect of gaping crowds, insures obsequious attention. It enables us to be charitable, to send Bibles to the heathen, to remove domestic indigence. It gilds the rugged scenes of life, and spreads over the rugged scenes of existence a velvet carpet soft to our tread; the rude scenes and turmoils are encased in a gilt frame. It bids care vanish, soothes the anguish of the bed of sickness; stops short of nothing save the grim destroyer, whose relentless hand spares none, but levels all mortal distinction, and teaches poor weak humanity that it is but bust. Wealth pauses on the brink of eternity; the beggar and the millionaire rest side by side beneath the sod, to rise in equality to answer the final summons.

A celebrated Cambridge scholar, an admirer of the Greek poets, has ordered in his will that, after death, his body shall be dissected and his skin taken off and tanned in such a manner as to convert it into parchment, on which the "Iliad" of Homer shall then be copied, the singular manuscript to be deposited in the British Museum.

Daniel Bryan's Oath.

[Most of the temperance stories of the day are weak and washy dilutions of preceding ones; but the following has a startling strength and vigor. Daniel Bryan, as appears by the context, had been a lawyer of eminence, but had fallen, through intoxication, to beggary and a dying condition. Bryan had married, in better days, the sister of Moses Felton."]

At length all hopes were given up. Week after week the fallen man would lie drunk on the floor, and not a day of real sobriety marked his course. I doubt if such another case was known. He was too low for conviviality; for none with whom he would have associated would drink with him.

All alone in his office and chamber he still continued to drink, and even his very life seemed the offspring of his jug.

In early spring Moses Felton had a call to go to Ohio. Before he sat out he visited his sister. He offered to take her with him, but she would not go.

"But why stay here?" urged the brother. "You are fading away and disease is upon you. Why should you live with such a brute?"

"Hush, Moses, speak not," answered the wife, keeping back her tears; "I will not leave him now, but he will soon leave me.—He cannot live much longer."

At that moment Daniel entered the apartment. He looked like a wanderer from the tomb. He had his hat on and his jug in his hand.

"Ah, Moses, how are ye?" he gasped, for he could not speak plainly.

The visitor looked at him a few moments in silence. Then, as his features assumed a cold, stern expression, he said in a strongly emphasized tone:

"Daniel Bryan, I have been your best friend but one. My sister is an angel, but matched with a demon. I have loved you, Daniel, as I never loved man before; you were noble, generous and kind; but I hate you now, for you are a perfect devil incarnate. Look at that woman. She is my sister—she might now live with me in comfort, only she will not do it while you are alive; yet when you die she will come to me. Thus do I pray that God will soon give her joys to my keeping. Now, Daniel, I do sincerely hope that the first intelligence that reaches me from my native place, after I shall have reached my new home may be—THAT YOU—ARE—DEAD!"

"Stop, Moses; I can reform."

"You cannot It is beyond your power. You have had inducements enough to have reformed half the sinners of creation, and yet you are now lower than ever before. Go and die, sir, as soon as you can, for the moment that sees you thus shall not find me among the mourners."

Bryan's eyes flashed, as he drew himself proudly up. "Go," he said, with a tone of the old powerful sarcasm, "go to Ohio, and I'll send you news. Go, sir, and watch the post, I will yet make you take back your words."

"Never, Daniel Bryan, never."

"You shall. I swear it!"

With these words, Daniel Bryan hurled his jug into the fire place, and while yet a thousand fragments were flying over the floor, he strode from the house.

Mary sank fainting on the floor. Moses bore her to a bed, and then having called in a neighbor, he hurried away, for the stage was waiting.

For a month Daniel moved over the grave, but he did not die.

"One gill of brandy will save you," said the doctor, who saw that the abrupt removal of stimulants from a system that for long years had almost subsisted on nothing else, was nearly sure to prove fatal. "You can surely take a gill and not take more."

"Aye," gasped the poor man, "take a gill and break my oath. Moses Felton shall never hear that brandy and rum killed me! If the want of it can kill me, then let me die! But I won't die! I'll live till Moses Felton shall eat his words."

He did live. An iron will conquered the messenger Death sent—Daniel Bryan lived. For one month he could not even walk without help. But he had help—joyful help.—Mary helped him.

A year passed away, and Moses Felton returned to Vermont. He entered the courthouse at Burlington, and Daniel Bryan was on the floor pleading for a young man who had been indicted for forgery. Felton started with surprise. Never before had such torrents of eloquence poured from his lips The case was given to the jury, and the youth was acquited. The successful counsel turned from the courtroom and met Moses Felton.

They shook hands but did not speak. When they reached a spot where none others could hear them, Bryan stopped.

"Moses," he said. "do you remember the words you spoke to me a year ago?"

"I do, Daniel."

"Will you now take them back—unsay them now and forever?"

"Yes, with all my heart."

"Then I am part repaid."

"And what must be the remainder of the payment?" asked Moses.

"I must die an honest, unperjured man! The oath that has bound me thus far was made for life."

That evening Mary Bryan was among the happiest of the happy. No allusion was made to the scene of one year before, but Moses could read in both the countenances of his sister and her husband the deep gratitude they did not speak.

And Daniel Bryan yet lives, one of the most honored men of Vermont. Five times has he sat in Sthe tate Legislature, three in the Senate, and once in the National Congress.

HINTS TO FARMERS.—Toads are the very best protection of cabbage against lice.

Pears are generally improved by grafting on the mountain ash.

Sulphur is valuable in protecting grapes from insects.

Lard never spoils in hot weather, if cooked enough in frying it out.

In feeding corn, 60 pounds ground goes as far as a hundred in the kernel.

Corn meal should never be ground fine. It injures its richness.

Turnips of small size have double the nutritious matter that larger ones have.

Rutabaga is the only root that increases its nutriment as its size increases.

Sweet olive oil is certain cure for the bite of a rattlesnake. Apply internally and externally.

Money skillfully expended in drying land by draining and otherwise, will be returned with ample interest.

To cure scatches on horses, wash the legs with soapsuds and then with brine. Two applications will cure the worst cases.

Timber cut in the Spring and exposed to the weather with the bark on, decays much sooner than if cut in the Fall.

Experiment shows apples to be equal to potatoes to improve cows, and decidedly preferable for feeding cattle.

A bare pasture enriches not the soil, nor fattens the animals, nor increases the wealth of the owner.

One animal well fed is more value than two poorly fed.

Ground once well plowed is better than thrice poorly.

Abundant crops cannot be grown for a succession o years unless care be takan to provide an equivalent for at least portion of the substances carried off the land in the prouncts grown thereon.

Thorough preparation of land is absolutely necessary to the successful gowth of crops.

OUTRAGEOUS SUPPRESSION OF FREE SPEECH. The following mottoes, says the Appeal, were inscribed on banners at the Peace meeting at Syracuse (N. Y.) on the 18th August:

"No more victims for the slaughter pen—not a man, nor a dollar."

"If Seward touches his bell again the people will stretch his neck."

"Abe Lincoln slaughters men under the pretense of freeing niggers."

"The people are ready to to take vengeance on the advocates of civil war."

"Lincoln demands blood! Provost-Marshals beware."

"Let the tyrant tremble when the people speak."

"Usurpation unrebuked is despetism accepted."

"Crush the tyrant Lincoln before he crushes you."

"Free ballots or free bullets."

"War is disolution, speedy and final."

"This is a nigger war."

"We will not be conscripted in a war for the emancipation of slavery."

"Humanity commands that this butchery shall cease."

"Lincoln has murdered three white men to free one negro."

SALA LIBELLING AMERICANS.—Drunk, the American is voluble enough; sober, he is a surly, churlish, ill-conditioned fellow. Of course I do not allude to Americans of liberal education or gentle breeding; they are as urbane and as chatty as gentle folks generally are all over the world; but it is the sudden revulsion from intercourse with polished, and cultivated, and sprightly friends, to a revolting fellowship with persons whose manners are as those of hogs, and whose demeanor is as that of grizzly bears, which disheartens, and at length exasperates a forigner. During my first month in America, I followed the custom of lifting my hat when I had to address a stranger, of saying, "If you please" when I asked for anything in a shop, and "Thank you," when I received my change. I found that the people never dreamed of rendering me a courtesy, so I left off being polite, demanded that which I required in as course and overbearing a tone as I could command, and got on much the better for it.

THERE air 2 things in this world, says Josh Billings, for which we air never fully prepaired, and those air—twins.

AN Irishman who hung out a striped petticoat for a flag, was asked what it meant.—"Why sure," said he "its the imblim of the country I love."

The Woodland News.

OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

SATURDAY, OCT. 8th, 1864.

J. J. KNOWLTON & Co., are our authorized Agents for receiving Subscriptions and Advertisements. Office—Cor. Montgomery and California streets, opposite Wells, Fargo & Co., San Francisco.

THANKS—To Hon. John Conness, for public documents.

THE Golden Age brought 100,000 letter, besides an immense newspaper mail.

THE Gazette says Nevada county will give 1,200 majority for Lincoln and Johnson.

BY a late decision of Judge McKune, the Sacramento Valley Railroad is prevented from running locomotives below Sixth street.

L. WILSON, who killed Perry Moore, at Folsom, last week, has been held for murder in the first degree.

ALL vessels which enter the harbor of San Francisco are boarded by the Harbor Police and an officer left on board.

MIKE WOODS will address the Democracy at Knight's Landing on Saturday evening next, the 15th inst, at 7 o'clock. *

THE Virginia Union says that Mr. Bonner, English Copperhead, foreman of the Gould & Curry claim, has discharged all Union hands in the claim.

A SALUTE of 36 guns were fired in Marysville on last Tuesday evening. The city is doomed, says the Appeal, and we expect to be able to announce its capture simultaneous with the re.election of Old Abe.

THAT fine steamer Chrysopolis, the noblest and most spacious boat that ever floated on the bosom of the Sacramento, has resumed her trips between San Francisco and Sacramento, says the Bee.

A DRAMATIC company, under the management of Chas. Tibbetts, is performing in Sacramento and will continue until the close of the State Fair. Virginia Howard is the female star.

LARGE BOUNTIES.—The town of Lockport, New York, gives $1,000 bounty to volunteers. This, with the county bounty given by Niagara county and the Government bounty, makes a total of $1,790 paid to each person who enlists.

DEFAULT —We learn from the Oregon Sentinel, that J. H. Short, ex-Treasurer of Josephine county, Oregon, has absconded, having failed to account for the sum of about four thousand dollars that came into his hands by virtue of his office.

SANITARY MEETING.—A meeting was held at Knight's Landing, on Thursday evening last, for the purpose of collecting money for the Sanitry Commission Fund. Mrs. W. E. Smith, Mrs. M. A. Updegraff, and Miss E. Masters, were elected to solicit subscriptions, and James McClintock, Secretary.

GREENBACK DECISION.—A decision has been rendered by the 4th District Court San Francisco, on the legal tender question. The issue was whether promissory notes calling for payment in gold coin, drawn prior to the specific contract law, could be paid in legal la tenders. They rendered judgement in the negative and ordered the note to be paid coin.

LITTLE MAC.—Little General too; little politician; little consistency; little honesty; represents a little party, with little principle, and only becomes grand—big—as the magnificent humbug that blinded the American people when he commanded their armies. Now he is a little humbug—great only in littleness. So says the Shasta Courier.

FILL UP THE VOLUNTEER COMPANIES—$300 BOUNTY—AMOUNT PAID DOWN, $160.—Mr. W. H. Parks, Provost-marshal for this District, has completed the districting of the counties in his department, and under the new regulation each Supervisor District in the several counties is apportioned according to the population for its quota under the present call for volunteers. The number wanted for immediate service from the 3d District, consisting of the townships of Grafton and Cache Creek is 26 able-bodied men. By the citizens making a united effort and securing the number of volunteers, the District will thereby be exempt from the draft; then every man should make an exertion to secure this number of volunteers.

Persons wishing to volunteer can obtain all information and be taken free of charge to the office, in Marysville, and be duly credited to this District, by applying at Knight's Landing, to J. W. Snowball.

Sanitary Commission.

Mr. Truett, agent for the Sanitary Commission, is now in this county organizing societies in all of the precincts in the county. On Monday he visited Washington, and organized a society, the officers of which are as follows: President, Amos Mathews; Vice-President, A. Warring; Secretary, J. Kinster; Treasurer, J. V. Hoag.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Truett visited this place, when a few of our citizens assembled and went into a preliminary organization, fixing twenty-five cents as the amount required to be paid for membership. A committee, consisting of Messrs. Frost, Fabricius, Deitz, Burnett, A. Sprague, and C. P. Sprague, were appointed to solicit members. Meeting adjourned to meet at the Court House on Wednesday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for a more perfect organization of the society, at which time addresses may be expected from several speakers upon sanitary arrangements and political subjects. A general invitation is given to ladies and gentlemen.

Thousands of thinking men often contrast the situation of the rebellious and loyal States, that they may draw a proper inference as to the final result of the present struggle. Copperheads are yet constantly asserting that we have gained not an important point towards crushing the rebellion; that the rebellious States are now stronger than they were at the commencement of the struggle; that each successive campaign has been a failure to the Government; that the South will yet be victorious, and will succeed in forcing the Government to acknowledge the "rights" of the Southern Confederacy.

Will those who believe such assertions are true reverse the picture, and suppose it were true that every port along our sea-coast were in the hands of the rebels, except Boston, and that under the fire of rebel guns; rebels in possession of the city of New York, and the whole line of navigation from that city to Chicago; a rebel army or armies moving at discretion through the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin; Grant penned up by Lee in the city of Washington; every line of supplies cut off except one, and that one threatened; Lee having captured some of the strongest forts for the protection of the Capitol within four or five miles of the heart of the city; non-combatants, panic-stricken, fleeing for safety; Early in pursuit of Sheridan, after having destroyed three-fourths of his corps, and Sheridan straining every nerve to reach Grant's lines; Sherman, after a desperate and deadly struggle with Hood at Cincinnati, forced to evacuate, leaving that city in the possession of the latter; military Governors appointed by Jeff Davis for Massachusetts, New York, and Illinois; Confederates holding their elections in five of the loyal States, and Wisconsin amended her constitution, forever establishing slavery in that State; the extent of country held by the Federal Government reduced more than half since the commencement of the war; every man capable of bearing arms now in the ranks, and the rebel army being now readily filled with five hundred thousand more men under a call from Jeff Davis. Such would be our situation if the picture were reversed. Such a situation would be no more discouraging than the one now occupied by the rebels.

Under such a state of circumstances, should a loyal citizen declare to a Copperhead that the rebels had yet gained nothing, and were no nearer achieving a victory and establishing their independence than at the commencement of the war, a just response would be, that he was the most fanatical of all fanatics. Under such a state of circumstances, should a Confederate assert that nothing had yet been gained, he would be denounced as the most cowardly of cowards, and as the foolishest of fools.

EMMIGRANT TRAIN.—A large emmigrant train from the East, by the plains across, arrived in this town this forenoon. Among the number was the wife, son and three daughters of John Brown, the hero of Harper's Ferry notoriety, and the frightener of the great State of Virginia, with his seven men and a cow. The train have intentions of settling in Tehama county—they can find no more favorable locality—there is plenty of land crying for the hand of the husbandman.—Independent.

THE Tuolumne Courier thinks that great political flea—General McClellan—is worrying the Copperhead party to death. One side reaches for him and he ain't there; the other sidemakes a grab and he ain't there either!—He's worse nor a lively skipper in rotten cheese. He reminds us of a baker, up to his elbows in dough, with a voracious flea in the sit-down part of his breeches.

UNION MEETING.—One of the largest political gatherings which has occurred for years in Red Bluff, assembled on Friday evening last, to listen to speeches from Hon. Sam Brannan, Elector, and J. E. Vinton, Esq. A big majority against disunion-copperhead-democracy, and in favor of the Union nominees will be rolled up in Tehama county. The people are wide awake, and thorougly imbued with the right spirit. So says the Independent.

A MEMORANDUM kept at Fort Laramie, shows that 6,161 wagons, with over 25,000 animals, passed over the route westward from the middle of March to the 9th of July. The emmigrants numbered over 19,000. In addition to these, an immense emmigration has passed over the stage route through Cheyenne Pass, making a total number living on the plains of over 50,000.

SOLDIERS MURDERED.—The Marysville Appeal learns that on the 1st of August a party of thirteen of the California Volunteers, whose term of service had expired and who had started overland for the East, were attacked and murdered by Indians when they had gone 140 miles on their journey.

BIG RACE.—A match race for $10,000 a side came off at the Bay View course, San Francisco, on Tuesday last, says the Bee, between "Unknown," a pacer, and "Fillmore," a trotter. The race was two miles and repeat, and the pacer won the money. It is said that $50,000 were staked on the match.

THE number of Union prisoners who have been confined in the Libby Prison since the beginning of the war is estimated at 97,000. A great proportion of these have contracted diseases from which they will never fully recover, and many have died.

A LETTER from Kenesaw Mountain (Ga.), July 1st, by Colonel Bryant, of the Eighty-eighth Illinois to his brother, D. W. Bryant, of Calavaras county, states the rebel soldiers are to a man for McClellan for President. On this our own soldiers universally disagree, and such arguments always end in a renewal of picket firing.—Appeal.

Yolo for McClellan.

On Wednesday, October 5th, the people of Woodland were surprised to witness the greet "Rally of the Democrats of Yolo." True it had been announced by flaming hand-bills in all parts of the county, "There will be a meeting of the Democrats of Yolo county. held at Woodland, Wednesday, October 5th," and the edict had gone forth in the following terms: "Rally, Democrats of Yolo, by order of the Chairman Co. Cen. Com.," yet even the most sanguinary were disappointed in the size of the audience, for no one anticipated that all the Democrats of the county would "rally."

When the hour of meeting arrived, citizens came rolling in from all points of the compass, and when the masses had been called to order by "the Chairman Co. Cen Com., Col. (?) E. J. Lewis appeared upon the stand and "spoke his piece," which might be denominated a patent sermon; he had his piece well committed, the text of which was: "My brethren, there are many kinds of snakes, but the Copperhead snake is just as good a snake as a Black-snake snake." When the speaker concluded, and resumed his seat, the minds of his audience were evidently so much engrossed upon the subject of snakeology, that they forgot to show any enthusiasm by way of a cheer, and all was as silent as a death chamber until thenext speaker, Jackson Temple, took his place upon the stand. Mr. Temple made rather an extended speech the burthen of which was an attempt to prove that bigamy and poligamy were not unconstitutional, and that Brigham Young could have seven wives, and not interfere with the rights of the people of the State of California. He sat down and doubtless left the bachelor portion of his audience cogitating upon their chances of getting one wife, the married portions upon the pleasures of having seven, and the ladies, we don't know what they were thinking about, for not a sigh, nor groan, nor a cheer was heard. No one proposed a cheer for McClellan, nor for Temple, nor for Brigham Young, but the procession moved away with as much solemnity, with as measured step, as if they had just witnessed the death and burial of Littlemac, Vallandigham, and Fernandiwod. Some of the curious thought proper to make an actual count of the immense audience upon whom the words of the eloquent speakers had fallen like a cold dish-rag. The whole number in attendance was one hundred and twenty-seven, thirteen of whom were females, fourteen were boys from eight to fifteen years old, and twenty-five or thirty were staunch Union men. Thus leaving the number about seventy or seventy-five, who constitute the "Democratic" forces of the county.

In this vast concourse of "Democrats," not even one discovered a point made by the speakers that was worthy of applause.

[COMMUNICATED.]

WOODLAND, Oct. 5, 1864

MR. EDITOR:—Agreeably to notice duly published, the Democracy of Yolo county assembled in mass at Woodland this day.—The meeting was called to order by J. W. Baldwin, Esq., Chair. of the Democratic Co. Commit., who made a few remarks, and then introduced Col. Lewis, one of the candidates for Elector. The Col 's speech was somewhat of the school-boy style, but having his piece well learned, he spoke it well. But the matter—dear me! Just think of a candidate for Elector of the State of California discussing the great question of Snakes—their qualities, disposition, &c., &c. While to me it looked slightly out of place, you may think it quite appropriate before a Copperhead audience.—The speaker had evidently heard of Garrison, Philips, Smith and others, as Abolitionists, and concluded that they, without political power or influence, were the cause of the present rebellion, and justified the rebellion on that ground. The Col. was unable to see how the Union could be restored by the present party in power, as they had declared against the institution of slavery. From the remarks of the speaker, one would be led to conclude that he thought rebels in arms against the Government had forfeited no rights, and that the Union would be incomplete without the institution of slavery.

Judge Temple, candidate of the Democracy for Congress, was next introduced and argued extensively in favor of State rights—that poligamy was constitutional, but wanted it understood that he di not think secession in any way warranted by the Constitution. But there were many things the speakers did not say. In the first place, they did not tell us anything about the platform of their party; they did not tell us what they would do to restore the Union in case they should succeed in electing McClellan President. They did not tell us what Weller meant in his speech at San Francisco a few days ago, when he said, in addressing a Democratic audience, "We must meet force by force," and in the same speech, that "Democrats must arise." They did not tell us what the peace Democrats of Indiana were a going to do with 30,000 navy revolvers, and 20,000 Garibaldi rifles. They did not forget to call on the faithful for fifty cents a piece to assist in keeping up expenses. This, though a "military necessity," was the hardest part of the programme; it almost drew tears from the eyes of the unterrified as they reluctantly placed the half-dollar on the table. Perhaps, Mr. Editor, it would be well, by way of excuse, to say that the nomination of McClellan was very coolly received by the Democrats of Yolo, and Woodland in particular. No rejoicing—not a cheer is heard for Littlemac; in fact not one is found that is really satisfied with his nomination.—There is scarcely a doubt that had Jefferson Davis been nominated for President at the Chicago Convention, instead of McClellan, as is usual with the party, there would have been great rejoicing; a smile would have been on the countenance of every good Democrat, and the air would have resounded with cheer after cheer for the nominee of the peace Democracy. Sincerely yours, F.

NEW CIRCUS.—The Yreka Journal gives the following very appropriate and sharp notice of the consolidated circus troupe which is now on the boards for exhibition. It says:

"The Great Democratic Cicrus Troupe, having been re-organized at Chicago, will perform every afternoon and evening at the usual hour, until November. Vallandingham is Ring Master, Seymour and Wood, Clowns.—McClellan will appear in his great Double Equestrian Act, of riding the horses, Peace and War Demo racy, while they go around the ring in different directions. At the crack of the ring master's whip, Little Mac will turn a somersault, and "change his base" from one horse to the other, with such rapidity it will be impossible for the spectators to tell which he is riding. A portion of tha Troupe is at present in Richmond, but as that city will soon be occupied by Yankees who can't appreciate their talents, the performers will be sent North, to add the thrilling attraction of a tight-rope performance to the bill already presented."

THE RUINS OF CHAMBERSBURG.—The members of both branches of the Legislature of Pennsylvania made a visit to Chambersburg to view the ruins of that place. A letter says:

"The scene can never be properly described. For squares in either direction private houses and stores have been burnt into one black ruin. The orders of the invaders had been to spare churches, and none of these were destroyed, except those in close proximity to residences. The fact that a Catholic church joined the depot was the means of saving the latter structure. The total loss to Chambersburg will reach three million dollars by actual count. The records of the Courts were nearly all preserved, and are now being arranged in a new structure. The people of Chambersburg are returning and commencing to rebuild their dwellings. All are well supplied with the necessaries of life."

PATENT COMBINED GANG PLOW, SEED SOWER AND HARROW,

At Reduced Prices.

We have purchesed the right of this great labor-saving implement for the State of California.

With this combined machine one man, with six horses, can do the work of three twelve inch plows, besides sowing the grain, and harrowing it in as he proceeds, thus finishing his work in the best manner possible, without being obliged to travel over plowed ground. This machine has been very thoroughly tested. It is made very substantial; is not liable to get out of order, and being on large truck wheels, the Gang Plow, Seed Sower and Harrow, runs lighter than three plows would, cutting the same amount of land.

We are desirous of having these plows generally introduced throughout the State, and are therefore prepared to offer very favorable inducements to farmers and the trade.

Election Law.

The following Act amendatory to and supplementary to an act, to regulate elections, was passed March 23, 1850, and approved April 4, 1864. It determines the qualifications of voters, and it is the duty of officers of election to see that it is enforced:

SECTION 1. Section twenty-eight of said Act is amended so as to read as follows:

PROCEEDINGS ON CHALLENGE.

Sect. 28. If any person offering to vote at the election shall be challenged in relation to his right to vote at that election, the Board of Judges shall declare to him the qualifications of an elector, and the Inspector or one of the Judges shall tender to him the following preliminary oath.

"You do swear, or affirm, that you will fully and truly answer all such questions as shall be put to you touching your place of residence and qualifications as an elector?"

The Inspector or one of the Judges shall then proceed to question the person challenged in relation to his name, then his place of residence, how long he has resided in the township and conuty, where his last place of residence was, also as to his citizenship, and whether a native or naturalized citizen, and if the latter, when, where, and in what court or before what officer he was naturalized, and all such other questions as shall tend to test his qualifications as to citizenship and right to vote.

SEC. 2. If any person shall refuse to take the said preliminary oath when so tendered, or to answer any and all pertinent questions as to his qualifications, his vote shall be rejected; and if the Board of Judges are satisfied, from his answers as aforesaid, that such person is not a legal voter, they shall reject his vote.

SEC 3. If such person shall still insist that he is entitled to vote, and the Board of Judges find no cause to reject his vote under the preliminary examination, and the challenge shall not be withdrawn, he shall not be entitled to vote unless he take the following oath, to be administered by the Inspector or one of the Judges, viz:

"You do swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that you are a citizen of the United States, that you are of the age of twenty-one years, according to the best of your knowledge and belief, that you have resided in this State six months next preceding this election, and in this county, (township, or ward, as the case may be,) thirty days, and that you have not voted this day?"

And in case the person offering to vote produce a certified transcript of the records of a court of competent jurisdiction, admitting him to citizenship, duly attested by the Clerk thereof, as evidence of his right to vote, and the person so producing the same is unknown to the Board of Judges, he shall make oath that he is the person therein named.

SEC. 4. If any person challenged as unqualied shall be guilty of wilful and corrupt false swearing or affirming in taking any oath or affirmation prescribed by this act, such person shall be adjudged guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury.

REBEL ACCOUNT OF THE CAPTURE OF GEN. STONEMAN.—The Macon (Georgia) Confederate gives the following particulars of what it terms "An unlucky Yankee affair," the defeat and capture of Gen. Stoneman:

The General had sustained a heavy loss in the engagement, and as soon as he saw preparations making to charge him again, he despatched a white flag, proposing an unconditional surrender of his whole force. The flag was received by Col. Crews, who then confronted him with 182 men. As soon as Stoneman saw the 182 men to whom he had surrendered, he sat down and took a regular cry. He handed his sword over to Col. Crews, and his staff directly divested hemselves of their arms. 600 Yankees at once threw down their arms, but the remainder seeing by this time the cowardice of their General in giving up to such a small force, broke though the woods pell-mell, helter-skelter, making off to the left Gen. Iverson ordered pursuit, and it is firmly believed nearly the whole party will be taken, with but few exceptions. We captured 1,000 horses and many stand of arms, two brass three-inch rifle cannon and caisons, several colors and guidons. Stoneman had only two cannon. He gives an excuse that he war out of amunition, but that is only his story.—Bulletin.

Sheriff's Sale.

B. C. AUSTIN,

324 Clay Street, San Francisco.

N. B.—The Leader Stove is entirely different from any stove heretofore introduced into this market. The top is made double with a hollow space between, thus insuring the outer thickness from becoming red hot. The top is so constructed that any size boiler can be used. The oven is large and is made with ventilators, so as to secure any degree of heat desired. Persons wishing to purchase a Stove, the most complete and convenient yet invented, will do well to call and see the "Leader." july30 3m

CASH PAID FOR SHEEP

By S. W. RAVELEY,
Knight's Landing.

The Woodland News.

MAZEPPA.—The bare-backed drama flourishes, and the legitimate is nowhere. People who shun the theatre when acting is to be seen, crowd the auditorium to feast their eyes upon the form of a woman in tights.—That is why Menken succeed in her daring innovation and why about a dozen young women are performing Mazeppa in various portions of the United States. Jordan found keeping a legitimate theatre in San Francisco a "hard road to travel." She cut crinoline, traveled on shape, and found the admiring public ready to pay any amount of toll. Dramatic criticism has degenerated to a laudation of legs. The main question is not whether an actress is an artiste, but whether her shape will justify a "model artiste." Miss Jordan will pass that ordeal.—Union.

YOUNG MAN, PAY ATTENTION.—Don't be a lo fer, don't call yourself a loafer, don't keep a loafer's company don't hang about loafing places. Better work hard for nothing and than sit around day after day or board yourself, stand around corners with your hands in your pockets.

WOMEN require more sleep than men, and farmers less than those engaged in any other occupation. Editors, reporters, printers, and telegraph operators, need no sleep at all.—Lawyers can sleep as much as they choose—it will keep them out of mischief.

JOSH BILLINGS says that "A man who will chawr turbacker will drink santy kruse rum; and a man who will drink santy kruse rum will go tu the devil; and a man who will go tu the devil is mean enuff tu du ennything.

MEDICAL NOTICES.

Important Medical Notice!

THE ELECTROPATHIC INSTITUTE,

645 Washington street.

Below Kearny St.,

SAN FRANCISCO.

Established February, 1860, by an Association of Scientific Gentlemen,

FOR THE

CURE OF DISEASE!

And for the Suppression of Quackery!

The one great object of the establishment of the Institute was to assure to the afflicted scientific and honorable treatment, where they would be safe from the wiles of empirics, who not only rob them of their money, but fill their systems with poisonous minerals, thereby destroying what little of the constitution was left from the ravages of disease.

The result thus far has greatly exceeded the most sanguine expectations of its founders.—So liberal has been the patronage of the public that the Resident and Consulting Physician,

J. H. Josselyn, M. D.,

Has been enabled to reduce the prices of cure very materially.

The Institute combines with its practice both the use of Vegetable Medicines and the Electropathic System; that is, the use of Electricity and the Celebrated Electro-Medical Bath,—the most powerful auxilliary in the removal of virus from the system yet discovered.

It is not necessary to enumerate all the diseases treated at the Institue. All diseases—no matter what may be their name or nature—will be treated in the most scientific manner.

Venereal. This terrible scourge can be eradicated by the system practiced at the Institute in a much shorter time than it has hitherto been accomplished by any other Physician in this country, and so entirely is the disease removed that no taint is left in the blood to break out at some future time. The RESIDENT PHYSICIAN would advise any one who has been afflicted, and who may have any fears that a cure was not effected, or that there is some of the virus still remaining, to call or write and consult him, and they can at once have their mind relieved, and should there be any trouble, a cure can be warranted.

To Females.

Ladies afflicted or in trouble will find at the Institute one who can understand and sympathize with them in their afflictions, and one who will render them prompt assistance, no matter what may be the trouble or disease, with the utmost dispatch and secrecy. Irregularities attended to promptly, and by the most approved methods.

Seminal Weakness.

That soul-destroying disorder can be cured in a very short time by the system practiced at the Institute, and a perfect cure warranted

Medicines sent to all parts of the State, Oregon, Nevada Territory, and, in fact, everywhere within the range of Express facilities.

All letters answered promptly and with pleasure, when directed to

The California Fly-Killing Liquid.

FLY Paper kills its thousands, the LIQUID FLY PAPER its tens of thousands. This preparation for killing flies gives the greatest satisfaction of anything ever yet used. It is now improved to the highest killing point.—It is of such a nature, and so speedy in its effects that the flies will not spot the walls and windows, which makes the use of other preparations so objectionable. For sale everywhere. CRANE & BRIGHAM,

MEDICAL NOTICES.

WATTS'

NERVOUS ANTIDOTE!

IS THE

MIRACULOUS MEDICINE!

The Elixir Vitæ so long sought by the Philosophers of all Ages.

HEAR! HEAR!! READ AND TRY!!

I have had an INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM for six weeks, so bad I could not move or stand. I tried every known remedy without effect. I got one bottle of Watts' Nervous Antidote. I had no pain. I got another and am quite well. I have found it as every one says. It is a wonderful remedy.

THOS. M. TAYLOR,
428 Greenwich street.

I was very much afflicted with St. Vitus' Dance and Bleeding Piles. I have taken the Nervous Antidote and am perfectly restored to health; the twitching nerves also around the mouth is removed, and I am again working at my trade with ease and cheerfulness.

HENRY TOBIAS, 6 Talman St., Brooklin.

One bottle of the Antidote has cured me of Liver Complaint and a violent Pain in the Side. I can now go to work.

WM. THOMPSON, Kent av., Brookln.

Watts' Nervous Antidote has cured me of a Cough and Nervous Debility of very long standing. I feel the greatest benefit from it, in sleep, appetite, and general health.

JANE THOMAS, Fifteenth st., west of 8th av.

I have received great benefit from Watts' Nervous Antidote in Nervous Debility and Deafness; it has improved my hearing, general health, and spirits, in fact I have received the greatest good from it.

MRS. TROTMAN,
Coopers' Av., Newport, L. I.

To Talbot Watts, Esq: Dear Sir—your medicine is the most astonishing thing I ever met with in the world. As I told you I was Weak, Nervous, had no Appetite, and not able to do anything; I took one teaspoonful of your medicine at night, and in the morning I got up fresh like a different person, ate a good breakfast, did my work easily, and altogether felt quite well and happy.

LOUISA THOMPSON,

IF YOU ARE SICK, READ THIS!!

MODERN CHEMISTRY has given to the world many new and valuable compounds, and the physician should have a proper knowledge of the chemistry of life, that he may with safety prescribe that which is best suited to meet the wants and supply the demands of animal economy, thereby arresting disease, and effecting a cure much sooner, without injury to the constitution.

DOCTOR A. BALL has accepted the proffered aid of science in isolating and concentrating active principles in rendering medicinal agents safe, prompt, efficient, and pleasant: the old, usual nauseating, and bulky drugs he discards altogether.

DOCTOR BALL has been engaged in the general practice of medicine for forty years, and having had great success in the treatment of the following diseases, has determined to advertise for the benefit of suffering humanity.

Syphilis and Gonorrhœa—In all their complications and stages, Dr. BALL has a new and valuable remedy, which will radically cure in one-fourth the usual time. Potassium, Mercury and Balsams discarded.

Spermatorrhœa—And its complications, Dr. BALL has a specific.

Rheumatism.—Dr. BALL has a specific for this terrible disease, which will give relief in a few hours, and cure in ten days.

Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Poisons, Piles, &c., Skillfully treated, and permanently cured in one-fourth the time usually required in such cases.

Leucorrhœa—And the thousand and one diseases with which woman is often afflicted, Dr. BALL has successfully treated by discarding all the old unsatisfactory remedies and substituting pleasant and efficient medicines, which act like a charm; in a few days the cheek begins to bloom like the rose, and in two or three weeks cheerfulness, activity, and health is the inevitable result.

DR. BALL has correspondents in London, Paris, and Boston, who supply him with all the new and valuable medicinal agents as soon as approved by the great Medical Lights.

Dr. Ball is no Quack.

He is a regularly educated physician of forty years standing, and has a diploma, which he will be pleased to exhibit to those who may wish to see it.

Persons living at a distance, by sending a description of their complaint can have their medicines put up in a package and sent by mail or per express in such a manner as not only to insure safety in transitu, but so that no one would suspect what are the contents.

Reference will be sent by mail to those who may wish to inquire as to the Doctor's ability before placing themselves in his charge.
